You may have heard about this event! It's the Rubicon Trail Foundation's 6th annual Cantina for the Con fund raiser held at the Loon Lake spillway on Labor Day weekend (September 4th and 5th). Come and join us for the best tacos you will ever have on the trail! We would love to see you there, but if you can't make it it's okay We'll still take your money. Make a donation for a chance to win some great prizes!

FAQ:

I don't live in the area can I still win?

YES, you can. We don't care where you live, we just want your support. So if you win a prize we will send it to you. We do ask that you pay for shipping if it's a large item.

Do I have to be at the event to win?

NO, you don't. We understand that you want to help us support the trail and might not be able to make it for what ever reason.(Even though you're missing out on great tacos.)

What amount can I donate?

We ask the donation amount be a minimum of $1. The more you donate the better your chance to win. For more information please email or PM me (email and pm information can be found at the bottom of this doc)

How do I make a donation?

A few ways to donate! We will gladly accept your check or money order made out to the Rubicon Trail Foundation (RTF) or you can buy tickets using your credit card. We ask if you would like to donate, please send an email to cantinadonations@gmail.com with the following information:

Your name
Home address
E-mail
Phone Number
amount of donation

If you are purchasing by credit card, you can call me directly at 510-209-5549. If I do not answer, please leave your name and number and I will return your call as soon as possible. Please make sure to still EMAIL all the other information for your ticket purchase.

Please make your check or money order out to: Rubicon Trail Foundation

Send it to:
